

Looking for an Apartment

Part 1: Comprehension

1. T / F Aron lives with his parents now.
2. T / F Aron wants a cheap apartment.
3. T / F Aron wants to live with a roommate.
4. T / F Aron often throws swinger parties at his pad.
5. T / F Aron's sister's apartment has a pool.
6. T / F Aron really wants to find an apartment with a pool.
7. T / F The apartments with pools are expensive.
8. T / F Mike tells Aron to be patient.

Part 2: Language Reductions

- Hey Mike.
- Hey Aron. Why are you looking at Craigslist?
- I _____ an apartment. I don't _____ with my parents anymore.
- That makes sense. Do you know _____ looking for?
- I think so. The important thing is that it _____ cheap.
- Then why _____ to find a roommate? That will make it cheaper for both of you.
- What you're saying is true, but right now I don't _____ a roommate. I need my own space for a while.
- OK. How about a pool? At your sister's place, there's a pool, right? You _____ a place that has one too, aren't you.
- I _____. I _____ a cheap apartment. All the apartments with pools seem out of my price range.
- OK. (2) _____ worry. I'm sure you will find just _____ looking for sooner or later. You just _____ patient.
- Thanks Mike. I will.