

At the Barber

Part 1: Comprehension

1. T / F Mike wants to buy some new shoes.
2. T / F Aron plans to visit his barber.
3. T / F Aron is going on a date tonight.
4. T / F Aron has long hair.
5. T / F Mike thinks Aron's sideburns are too long.
6. T / F Aron is going to meet Mike's sister.

Part 2: Language Reductions

MIKE: Hey Aron.

ARON: Hey Mike.

MIKE: _____ going to do this afternoon? _____ go downtown with me? I _____ some new jeans.

ARON: Sorry, I can't. I'm _____ busy.

MIKE: Oh? What _____ doing?

ARON: I'm going to the barber. I've got a date tomorrow night. I _____ look good.

MIKE: What? _____ do that for? Your hair's not that long.

ARON: Oh, I'm not _____ it cut.

MIKE: I don't understand _____. What are you going to the barber for if you're not _____ your hair cut?

ARON: Oh, I'm just going to get it trimmed. Tell me, what do you think about my sideburns. Are they too long?

MIKE: Maybe. It'll depend on how hair your looks when it's trimmed. Why don't you just show the barber a picture of you with a hair style that you like? You can ask him to make it look like the photo.

ARON: That's a good idea.

MIKE: Say, who are you going out with tomorrow?

ARON: Oh right. I forgot to tell you. I'm going to meet your sister.

MIKE: What?

MIKE: Hey Aron.

ARON: Hey Mike.

MIKE: What are you going to do this afternoon? Do you want to go downtown with me? I want to get some new jeans.

ARON: Sorry, I can't. I'm going to be busy.

MIKE: Oh? What are you going to be doing?

ARON: I'm going to the barber. I've got a date tomorrow night. I want to look good.

MIKE: What? What do you want to do that for? Your hair's not that long.

ARON: Oh, I'm not going to get it cut.

MIKE: I don't understand what you mean. What are you going to the barber for if you're not going to get your hair cut?

ARON: Oh, I'm just going to get it trimmed. Tell me, what you think about my sideburns. Are they too long?

MIKE: Maybe. It'll depend on how hair your looks when it's trimmed. Why don't you just show the barber a picture of you with a hair style that you like? You can ask him to make it look like the photo.

ARON: That's a good idea.

MIKE: Say, who are you going out with tomorrow?

ARON: Oh right. I forgot to tell you. I'm going to meet your sister.

MIKE: What?